Pause for Paws

On the first Saturday of each month, come in through the west door of the church, with (or without) your dog and take a look inside the church and see that it is a friendly and welcoming place where all are welcome. Refreshments are available: tea/coffee and squash, biscuits and dog biscuits.

SUNDAY 8th JUNE, 10:30AM

We welcome Steve Moses from the Loughborough Town of Sanctuary to preach for us. LTOS is one of the charities that the PCC agreed to support last year and we are hoping the service will be followed by some themed refreshments from different parts of the world!

FRIDAY 13th and SATURDAY 14th JUNE

Open Days at St Mary's Coleorton

Coleorton Heritage Group and St Mary's congregation are hosting two open days for people to come and visit. There will be various displays, refreshments and the opportunity to see the new lighting there and to walk round the grounds of Coleorton Hall. The church is open from midday until 4pm on Friday 13th June and 11am until 4pm on Saturday 14th June. All are welcome.

SATURDAY 14th JUNE 11:00AM

Marjie Wilson's funeral will be at St Helen's. All are welcome to attend.

SATURDAY 14th JUNE, 8:00AM

Ashby Men's Breakfast Club

The next meeting of Ashby Men's Breakfast Club is at 8:00am on Saturday 14th June at Ashby Wetherspoons for Breakfast followed by a talk given by Bill Devitt on what happened when the BBC Top Gear programme wanted to create a railway train comprising caravans on wheels!

Geoff will be presenting the following event in July "Number PleaseTrying to Connect You!" giving a look at the invention of the telephone system.

SUNDAY 15th JUNE, 10:30AM

Morning Worship

The 15th June is Trinity Sunday, but this year "Music Sunday" also falls on Trinity Sunday, so we're going to take the opportunity to use music to celebrate the Trinity, and to give thanks for the gift of music and its power to enhance worship. We're also going to see if knowing a little more about the structure of a musical chord, can help further our understanding of the Trinity!

We look forward to welcoming you next Sunday, be prepared for LOTS of singing – and it may be a service that your friends and neighbours might enjoy, so why not invite them too?

The service is at our usual time, 10.30 on Sunday 15th June.
